FIRST INSPECTION OF THE REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE SERVICE - THE OUTCOME

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Executive Mayor : Tony Egginton
Managing Director : Ruth Marlow

RE - INSPECTION - THE FINDINGS

Audit Commission press release (June 2006):

“It is pleasing that customers have seen a significant improvement in the repairs and maintenance service provided by Mansfield DC. This was previously a very poor service and staff have worked hard to make these changes. But there is more work to be done before the Council achieves a good customer focused service that can demonstrate value for money”

Executive Mayor : Tony Egginton
Managing Director : Ruth Marlow

RE - INSPECTION - THE FINDINGS

☺ Strengths:

- Customer satisfaction improved
- Backlog of repairs cleared and response times improved
- Gas servicing good
- Customer involvement improved

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Executive Mayor : Tony Egginton
Managing Director : Ruth Marlow

☹ Weaknesses:

- Call answering times poor
- No demonstration of VFM
- Traditional working hours

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Executive Mayor : Tony Egginton
Managing Director : Ruth Marlow

RE-INSPECTION - PROSPECTS FOR IMPROVEMENT

- Good progress made against recommendations
- Improving CPA progress assessment report
- Strong leadership
- Clear vision and aims for the service
- Evidence of culture change - more open management and better communication

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Executive Mayor : Tony Egginton
Managing Director : Ruth Marlow

WHAT WAS LEARNT FROM INSPECTION?

- How poor the service was - initial inspection was a harsh lesson but gave a clear direction
- Need to ensure service user focus - access, engagement, involvement, standards, and quality
- Need for staff to think and work differently

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Executive Mayor : Tony Egginton
Managing Director : Ruth Marlow

WHAT WAS LEARNT FROM INSPECTION?

- That a poor service can be improved and developed relatively quickly
- That good leadership and corporate support is essential to drive improvement and
- That there is still much to be done to achieve the ambition of being a good service by 2008 & excellent by 2015
