

COMMUNITY PLANNING – TEN YEARS ON THE DUMFRIES AND GALLOWAY EXPERIENCE

Cllr Sandra McDowall
Community Planning Joint Board and Dumfries and Galloway Council

Dumfries and Galloway

Overview

- geography
- demographics
- local communities
- partnership working

Community Planning –ten years on overview of presentation

- national framework
- support from all partners
- clarity of purpose
- constantly developing process
- trust and openness
- make things happen

national framework

- Legislation – Local Government and Community Planning Act 2003
- National Task Force
- Concordat between Scottish Government and Local Government 2007
- Single Outcome Agreements between local partners and the Scottish Government

clarity of purpose

- shared vision
- medium and short term objectives
- ownership of the objectives

support from all partners

Public sector

- Council lead role
- Other key players – health, enterprise, police, fire and rescue, housing, tourism, MPs, MSPs

Third Sector

- Voluntary sector
- Community Sector (including statutory Community Councils)

Private sector

constantly developing process

- objectives
- performance management
- structures, remits and memberships
- events
- communications

trust and openness

- personal relationships matter
- positive approach
- transparency and openness

make things happen!

- ensure you deliver
- celebrate success

